CALL FOR PAPERS

Conference on Corporate Finance and Financial Intermediation

Hong Kong, 3-4 June 2019

The Chinese University of Hong Kong Business School (CUHK Business School) and the Review of Corporate Finance Studies (RCFS) invite paper submissions for a conference to be held at CUHK Business School in Hong Kong on June 3 and June 4, 2019. The conference will focus on topics on corporate finance and financial intermediation.

Professor Laura Starks, Charles E. and Sarah M. Seay Regents Chair in Finance, McCombs School of Business, University of Texas at Austin and President of the Society of Financial Studies, and Professor Anjan Thakor, John E. Simon Professor of Finance, Olin Business School, Washington University in St. Louis, will deliver keynote addresses at the conference.

Presenting authors will be awarded a travel grant to cover economy class air fare (up to a maximum of USD 1000). Accommodation will be provided by the organizers at the nearby Hyatt Regency hotel for 2 nights (June 2 and 3). Additional night(s) will be at the participant's own expense. The conference will in the afternoon of June 4.

PAPER SUBMISSION: Authors are invited to submit papers in PDF format (including abstract, authors' affiliations and contact information) by email to fin@cuhk.edu.hk by March 1, 2019. The subject header of the email should be "Submission to RCFS-CUHK 2019 Conference".

DUAL SUBMISSION OPTION: In the submission, authors should indicate if they wish their paper to be considered (at no extra fee) for publication by RCFS under the Dual Submission Program. This is a "no-fault" submission option: if the RCFS reviews the paper and rejects it, the authors may submit it to any SFS journal at a later date as if it was never submitted. See <http://sfs.org/dualsubmissionpolicy/> for details. The cover page should say in bold "For Submission to the RCFS under the Dual Submission Program".
